Angela has a legal career spanning over 15 years that has focused on insurance defense, including construction defect litigation, personal injury and general civil litigation. Prior to joining Resnick & Louis, she spent 6 years practicing in the areas of construction defect claims and automobile liability/bodily injury claims for both private firms and as staff counsel for a large national insurance company. While in law school, Angela was a member of the Dean's List, Honor Roll and received several CALI Awards of Excellence. As of the fall of 2015, she became an adjunct professor at College of the Canyons in Valencia, California for the Paralegal Program teaching Legal Writing.

Angela received her Bachelor of Arts degree in 1994 from Virginia Tech, majoring in History with a minor in Political Science. Prior to attending law school, she attended Denver Paralegal Institute receiving her paralegal certificate in 1995 and spent the next two years as a paralegal in her home state of Virginia working for a multi-national law firm focusing on the defense of the tobacco industry. Angela then received her law degree from Whittier Law School in 2000. Later, in 2014, she completed a program in mediation and conflict resolution at California State University at Northridge receiving a Certificate of Advanced Professional Development, with Distinction.

Angela practices law in Arizona and California.
