Jonathan has represented several insurance carriers in local, state and federal courts. Legal issues generally included insurance coverage disputes, bad faith, breach of contracts, personal injury, and business disputes. He has extensive experience reviewing underlying insurance claims after litigation was commenced, developing and implementing litigation strategies, preparing discovery and pleadings, conducting depositions, expert discovery, attending court hearings, arbitrations, settlement conferences, and conducting trials.

Prior to joining Resnick & Louis, P.C. Jonathan was in-house counsel for United Auto where he managed and operated the Arizona branch of Insurer's legal department. He advised on litigation strategies, coverage opinions and risk management strategies in the employees handling of claim matters.
