Christopher Brown is an Attorney in the firm's Orlando office focusing his practice on the defense of Property and Casualty claims, including Personal Injury, Premises Liability, Construction Litigation, Products Liability, and complex General Liability matters involving wrongful death and catastrophic injuries.

Christopher has a wide range of legal experience including handling family law matters, estate planning, criminal defense, foreclosure litigation, business law and general civil litigation. Before joining the firm, Christopher was an associate attorney at a full service law firm handling cases in many areas of law. Prior to that, Christopher operated his own law firm in which he handled family law, wills and general civil cases. He has also acted as a Guardian Ad Litem advocating for the best interests of alleged child abuse victims.

Christopher earned his Bachelor of Science degree from University of Central Florida and went on to earn his Juris Doctor degree from Barry University School of Law. While attending law school, Christopher acted as an impartial mediator in Small Claims and Landlord/Tenant actions for the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida Dispute Resolution Services-Orange County Florida Courthouse.
