Kenneth focuses his practice on construction defect litigation, insurance defense, bodily injury defense, automobile liability and general civil litigation. Prior to joining Resnick & Louis, P.C., he spent 7 years practicing in the areas of construction defect, products liability, premises liability, bodily injury, workers compensation, and toxic torts. Kenneth has practiced at the state and federal level and has successfully resolved numerous civil lawsuits on behalf of his clients. Kenneth is licensed to practice before all courts in the State of California as well as the Central and Southern Federal District Courts.

Kenneth received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 2004 from Northern Arizona University and his Juris Doctor degree from Pepperdine University School of Law in 2007. While in law school, Kenneth was awarded the Dean's Merit Scholarship and the Pepperdine Endowed Scholarship, and was a member of the Advocates for Public Interest Law.
