

We provide training to grow digital inclusion awareness, help others with digital skills and tackle the digital divide.

We offer ongoing practical support and strategic consultancy, based on more than 25 years working in digital inclusion.

We are a social enterprise and we work across the public, private and voluntary sectors.

Our training works in all areas at all levels, whether you want to create Champions who can help others with digital skills, or raise awareness of the issue across your organisation.

How can we help?

We provide everything you need for successful, sustainable digital inclusion programmes:

- Award winning online courses & resources.
- Ready-to-go frameworks to set up and run programmes, with on-going support for Project Managers and Champions.

- Built-in tools to measure progress and evidence impact.
- Strategic, practical advice to target energy and resources in the right places.
