

Case Studies & Resources

These resources are based on our experience of running Digital Champions programmes for more than 25 years, most of them are short case studies with some of our clients.

Planning a programme

Get your project up and running

Recruiting Digital Champions

Working in a network with other organisations

Getting started when you don't know where to start

Maintaining Success

Case studies from corporates

How corporate clients use Inspire

Designing Inspire to benefit employees, employers and learners

Sector specific advice

How to work in a Public/ Private Partnership

Lessons from Local Authorities

Designing for people with a learning disability

Cross-borough programmes

Managing health online