digital skills

Look round the Digital Champions Network

We run regular tours of the Network so you can see how it works. The next is on Wednesday July 5th at 10:15am. The tour takes about half an hour, with time for questions after. We'll show you:

- how it works for Champions: the courses and structures
- how it works for Project Managers: the tools and support we provide to help you set up & run your project
- how the Network can be adapted for your organisation: there are lots of different ways it can work for you

We upgraded the Network last year. It's full of learning, but now also has a suite of brilliantly useful resources and extra project management tools. Come and have a look for yourself.
