

What is a chat room?

 Print this guide

A chat room is an online venue or 'virtual room' where people with a shared interest can communicate with each other 'interactively' in real time, as opposed to a 'forum' where people communicate and carry on discussions more slowly by posting messages. When a registered chat room user types a message into a text box, it will be visible to other users almost immediately.

Next steps

 What is Skype?

 What is instant messaging?

Want to help lots of learners?

Find out about our courses